LEADERSHIP RETREATS HELP WOMEN NAVIGATE PAST RISKS FOR EXECUTIVE SUCCESS OFFERED BY CDR ASSESSMENT GROUP AND THE ALEXCEL GROUP

Let's face it, leadership isn't easy. For women leaders, the challenges can be steep, while support may seem hit or miss -- that is, until now.

Tulsa, Oklahoma (PRWEB) June 25, 2014 -- CDR Assessment Group, Inc. and The Alexcel Group have announced a series of Women's Leadership Retreats to offer a novel solution designed to help women get past the obstacles to success. They personalize development to hone in on what each woman leader needs most to maximize her potential, while neutralizing risks that could otherwise undermine her success.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THESE WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP RETREATS:

Alexcel Group members Patricia Wheeler, Nancy Parsons and Barbara Mintzer McMahon are offering these powerful leadership retreats exclusively for women. The Women's Leadership Retreats include pre-work assessment with the in-depth CDR 3-D Suite, pre-workshop one-to-one coaching, two-day custom workshops, and post workshop coaching & action planning. (This includes four hours of one-to-one coaching!)

For women leaders considering attending, please ask yourself if you would benefit from:

- Enhancing your confidence and leadership presence
- Re-kindling your strengths and motivations
- Bolstering your authentic leadership acumen
- Identifying your "secret sauce" for exceptional leadership
- Learning to neutralize risk factors that can derail your success
- Enhancing your influence in male dominated cultures
- Developing your approach to break through the "glass ceiling"
- Increasing your confidence to ask the tough questions
- Preparing you to deal with conflict more effectively
- Improving the balance between your professional and personal life
- Developing and sustaining strategies for ongoing learning and growth

Be sure to register right away to assure your participation. The first retreat is scheduled for August 20 & 21st and coaching begins right away so don't delay! Retreats are scheduled for Tulsa, Atlanta and San Francisco.
